Enclosed for Los Angeles, New York, and NFO is one copy of portions of the September/October, 1971, issue of the "Columbia Journalism Review." This issue contains articles concerning the publication of the "McNamara Study" by various newspapers in the U.S. Recipients should review the material enclosed for leads.

Los Angeles and WFO note that an article by Jules Witcower of the "Los Angeles Times" on pages 7-15 of the enclosed publication, relates that Bon Hely Bagdiklan, assistant managing editor, "The Washington Post," inquired of of the Rand Corporation concerning the existence of a Rand Corporation study on the advisability of withdrawn! from Vietnam and was told by Rand that there had been no such study. This occurred just prior to the publication by "The New York Times" of portions of the "Melamara Study," that is, prior to 6/13/71. The article west on to relate that on 6/17/71, Bagdikian west to the home of an official of "The Washington Post" carrying 4,400 unbound pages of a document (presumably the "Helimara Study.") The article went on to relate that Bagdikian had a prominent role in the preparation of "The Washington Post" articles on the "McKamera Study." b7E shortly before the publication of portions of the "McNamara Study by "The Washington Post." In this connection it will be noted that has stated that he attempted to contact Bagdikian but he has not related to this Bureau details of contacts Bagdikian may have made with him
